

Dear American University Degree Candidates:

Welcome to American University's 148th Commencement! AU trustees, senior leadership, faculty, staff, and alumni join me in celebrating the hard work and many accomplishments that brought you to this important day.

We welcome you into the larger AU family of more than 150,000 alumni living in all 50 states and more than 170 countries.

During your time at AU, you learned from influential scholars, pursued internships in our nation's capital, explored important questions, made discoveries about yourself and the world, and engaged in service activities, clubs, organizations, and athletics—all while building cherished memories and making lifelong friends.

Now more than ever, the world needs your leadership skills, your drive to serve your community, and your vision for a better future. I am confident that your American University education has prepared you to lead with purpose and make a difference in our world.

On behalf of the entire American University community, I wish you all the best as you begin the next chapter of your life's journey.

Congratulations!

Jonathan R. Alger

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY PROFILE

American University is an independent, coeducational, Methodist-affiliated institution chartered by Congress in 1893. Our cosmopolitan campus enrolls 12,000 students in undergraduate, master's, doctoral, and professional degree programs. The university attracts students from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, US territories, and over 120 countries.

Our nationally and internationally acclaimed faculty are committed to excellence in scholarship and teaching of our diverse and talented student body. American University's academic programs are grounded in the arts and sciences and connected to the extraordinary cultural, public affairs, legal, business, international, and communication resources of Washington, DC.

The university's academic offerings include 79 bachelor's programs, 90 residential master's programs, 20 online master's programs, 12 doctoral programs, 13 law programs, and nearly 100 undergraduate and graduate certificate programs through its eight schools, colleges, and academic divisions: College of Arts and Sciences, Kogod School of Business, School of Communication, School of Education, School of International Service, School of Public Affairs, Washington College of Law, and Professional Studies.

AU offers multidisciplinary curriculums that focus on experiential learning, theoretical study, and twenty-first-century skill building. Opportunities abound for dual and joint degrees and internships, and AU offers more than 100 study abroad and exchange programs, as well as immersive study programs in Washington, DC, and other US locations.

Our pioneering centers, institutes, and initiatives undertake research on the world's most pressing issues and carry out AU's mission to produce novel ideas that inform society and enable decision makers to adopt evidence-based practices.

AU will continue to build on these strengths to advance a distinctive, globally oriented university dedicated to academic excellence and preparing students for leadership in a complex international society.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

SEAN ASTIN, SPA/MPAP '24

Doctor of Humane Letters

Sean Astin is an acclaimed American film and television actor and is best known for classic characters: Samwise Gamgee in the Lord of the Rings trilogy, Rudy in Rudy, Mikey Walsh in Spielberg's The Goonies, Doug Whitmore in 50 First Dates, Bob Newby in Netflix's Stranger Things, and most recently Tyler on ABC's The Conners. Astin is making his Broadway debut as Santa this holiday season, in Elf: The Musical. Astin is the son of luminary performers Patty Duke and John Astin.

Astin currently has an important leadership role with his union, SAG-AFTRA, serving on the National and Los Angeles Local Boards as well as on many committees (Executive, Strike Preparedness, Government Affairs and Public Policy, and Government Rules). He was on the 2023 TV/Theatrical Negotiating Committee, which oversaw the historic 118-day summer strike, as well as 2024/2025 Animation and Commercials Negotiating Committees. Recently he delivered keynote speeches at the California Federation of Labor Biennial Convention in San Diego and in front of the legislature in Sacramento, California, in support of artificial intelligence protections legislation.

Astin served under six cabinet secretaries in two presidential administrations as a civilian aide to the Secretary of the Army. He was appointed to serve as a nonpartisan on the President's Council on Service and Civic Participation.

Astin regularly speaks to universities, corporations, and nonprofit organizations on various subjects, including leadership and acting, with special emphasis on continuing his mother's legacy of activism in mental health.

Astin recently completed a master's degree in public administration and policy at American University. He graduated from UCLA in 1997 with bachelor's degrees in history and English.

Astin lives in Los Angeles, California, with his wife of 32 years, Christine Astin. They have three children, Ali Astin, 27; Elizabeth Astin, 22; and Isabella Astin, 19.

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The American University Alumni Association (AUAA) involves and sustains a worldwide community of alumni through opportunities for meaningful engagement aimed at increasing pride, volunteer involvement, and philanthropic commitment to American University. AUAA serves the university's more than 150,000 alumni, cultivating lifelong relationships with graduates and offering exclusive benefits and resources. AUAA encourages involvement with AU through volunteering, networking, and mentoring opportunities and includes alumni alliances and networks focused on identities, industries, interests, and experiences. Learn more at american.edu/alumni.

🦅 Congratulations to graduates who have made an AU education part of their family traditions. We celebrate Eagle families!

American University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, including sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, sex characteristics, sex stereotypes and pregnancy or related conditions, age, marital status, genetic information, personal appearance, matriculation, family responsibilities, political affiliation, disability, familial status, source of income, place of residence or business, veteran status, or any other protected basis and prohibits discrimination in any program or activity that it operates, as required by federal or local laws and their implementing regulations and university policies, including in employment and admission. Inquiries about Title IX and American University's nondiscrimination policies may be referred to the university's assistant vice president for equity and Title IX coordinator, US Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights, or both. The assistant vice president for equity and Title IX coordinator may be contacted at the Office of Equity and Title IX, 3201 New Mexico Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20016, equityoffice@american.edu, or 202-885-8080. American University's nondiscrimination policies and grievance procedures can be located at the university's policy webpage (<https://www.american.edu/policies/allpolicies.cfm>) or the Office of Equity and Title IX webpage (<https://www.american.edu/equity-titleix/>). To report or make a complaint of discrimination, including sex discrimination, please use the online reporting form located at <https://www.american.edu/equity-titleix/>. UP25-120

In addition, a copy of the University's Discrimination and Sexual Harassment Policy is available here.

<https://www.american.edu/policies/upload/discrimination-and-sexual-harassment-policy.pdf>.
